General map of Paris by night

This is our heat map of Paris' districts at night. From quiet residential districts where restaurants close at 10:30pm to areas where, like most other big cities in the world - the city never sleeps!

Paris at night is an amazing city to explore!

Perfect night stroll districts:

- 2. The Seine River goes from Notre Dame to Concorde: Walking along the Seine River from Concorde square to Notre Dame is a stunning experience. Nothing beats Paris bridges at night!

Club districts:

- 3. Champs Elysées area where the fanciest clubs are located (Raspoutine, Le Baron, le Hobo, l'Etoile).
- 4. Pont Alexandre 3: With cool bars and clubs such as Le Faust and En attendant Rosa, the Seine river banks around this bridge has been a hot spot for Paris clubbing for the past 10 years.
- 5. Austerlitz bridge: This brand new architectural gem hosts the Fashion & Design center of Paris, 3 of Paris' trendiest clubs for the past 5 years can be found here: Wanderlust, Nuits Fauves, and Débonaires. On the other side of the river there is Concrete, famous for its electronic and minimalist scene. This is the district where the cool kids go out.
- 6. Pigalle: This area has been the epicenter of Paris nightlife for years. With giant electronic clubs, ephemeral party venues, rock clubs, and burlesque and transformist shows (La Machine du Moulin Rouge, Le Bus Palladium, Madame Arthur, Le Carmen).

Bar districts:

- 7. Grands Boulevards: This area mixes the biggest pubs in town, cool dancing bars, and some cutting edge clubs. Grand Boulevards is a district that never sleeps.
- 8. South Montmartre: This area is the beating heart of Paris nightlife with more delicious cocktail bars than imaginable, 24/7 pharmacies, convenience stores, and restaurants.
- 9. Saint Michel & the Latin quarter: University student's favorite district to go out in, it has dozens of tiny cheap bars on every street and iconic jazz venues.
- 10. Chatelet: Right in the center of Paris, there are 2 streets and one street corner which gather hungry night owls looking for cheap street food, jazz lovers, and young crowds looking for cheap drinks in the local pubs.
- 11. Le Marais: Le Marais hosts the most entertaining LGBT bars in Paris found all around Rue des Archives.
- 12. Bastille & Oberkampf: This is the hang out area of the cool crowds in Paris, with multiple bars and a New Years Evening vibe everyday of the week.

What to wear to go out in Paris?

Follow @sezane and @lavielocale for inspiration on how to master Parisian' chic!

Ladies

Parisian chic is a little black dress and flats. You will not see crazy party outfits in clubs. Parisians people like to pretend they "woke up like this". On New Year Evening you can see some crazy outfits but it is usually very soft on regular Saturdays. Heels for a party night are always a good idea if you can bear dancing with them all night. With sneakers you might not be accepted in fancy clubs on Champs Elysées.

Gentlemen

With a nice shirt and a pair of dress shoes, you can get in anywhere. Sneakers and a tshirt might be tricky for a fancy clubs on Champs Elysées but for a club party in the 9th it will be just fine.

Browse bonnegueulefr and follow Mathieu Lebreton @daamn to dress like a real Parisian!

INSIDR tips

Bring your smallest purse, no backpack, and avoid wearing a helmet or you will be ripped off at the cloakroom in most of the clubs. INSIDR cheap hack: if you are wearing a coat or a jacket + a sweater, hide the smaller piece of clothing in your jacket or coat's sleeves!

Best districts in Paris at night

Where to go on Paris nights

If you want to enjoy your nights in Paris as much as your days, here is a guide of the nicest districts to explore.

To navigate around Paris in the evening, we recommend using metro Line 1 (until 2am on the weekends). It goes through almost all our favorite districts for enjoying a Paris night.

Best districts in Paris at night

Bastille

Bastille is one of Paris' most vivid districts at night. With plenty of cool restaurants, bars open all night, and several clubs. It is a favorite hang-out district amongst young people between 20-30 years old. Good for budget travelers and friends.

Oberkampf

Another very fun, vivid and affordable area to go out to. It is one of the trendiest districts for going out. With tons of bars, cocktails bars, and cool dancing bars.

The Oberkampf district is quite spread out. The crowd is a little bit older than Bastille - 30-40 years

Our selection in Bastille

Restaurant: La Fée Verte - good local restaurant

- Address: 108 rue de la Roquette, 75011

There are many transportation means that you work in Paris at night. The #1 taxi company in France is named G7. Uber works well all over Paris and there are a few similar services that are worth checking out.

- How to get one: Hail in the street when you see a taxi with a green light. Or on their website
- Get the App here
- How to pay: In cash directly to the driver

Cheat sheet of taxi in Paris

PARIS TAXI GUIDE

- ✓ For rides to the airport, book your taxi in advance.
* Remember that surcharges apply depending on the time and day that you request for. We recommend booking G7 taxis!
- ✓ Only get inside official taxis = cabs with the "Taxi Parisien" sign on the roof.
- ✓ It's easiest to hail a cab from outside train stations or when standing on main street corners
- ✓ Be polite! Make sure you greet your driver with "bonjour" and don't forget to say "merci" and "au revoir" when you leave!
- ✓ Some common taxi surcharges: 1€ for every piece of heavy luggage, 4€ for a 4th passenger in the cab
- ✓ It is nearly impossible to get a taxi during the morning rush hour (9-10 am) and late at night (1-3 am).
* Try catching a ride with Uber or Chauffeur Privé but it may cost more.
- ✓ Always have cash on you! Taxis only accept credit card payments for a minimum ride of 15€
* If you've enjoyed your ride, you can tip the driver by rounding off to the nearest euro.
- ✓ If you're riding a taxi for work, don't forget to ask for a "reçu" or invoice.
